Art David A. Scott, 2016-12-31 This book presents a detailed account of authenticity in the visual arts from the Paleolithic to the postmodern The restoration of works of art can alter the perception of authenticity and may result in the creation of fakes and forgeries These interactions set the stage for the subject of this book which initially examines the conservation perspective then continues with a detailed discussion of notions of authenticity and philosophical background There is a disputed territory between those who view the present day cult of authenticity as fundamentally flawed and those who have analyzed its impact upon different cultural milieus operating across performative contested and fragmented ground The book discusses several case studies where the ideas of conceptual authenticity aesthetic authenticity and material authenticity can be incorporated into an informative discourse about art from the ancient to the contemporary illuminating concerns relating to restoration and art forgery

The Transfer of Knowledge through Art and Visualization Anna Ursyn, 2023-12-06 This book offers strategies for the transfer of knowledge through combining information technology and visual arts and examining how to visually enhance and convey knowledge Specifically it presents a fresh look at how technology based science inspired projects can be innovatively delivery through artistic methods It explores a selection of inventions gained through the collaboration of internationalist professionals in various fields of knowledge before outlining a new approach in how knowledge can be delivered using the inventions in a novel visual way through action based visual storytelling video graphical display and visualization Crucially it looks at how current media and techniques used for presenting topics in industries corporations commerce and marketing companies could be successfully translated and developed as a presentation skill in the school college or university environment It thus seeks to address the skills that prospective employers expect from students in terms of possessing the ability to create visual presentations of data solutions and products With a sharp focus on the current generation schools academies business and marketing companies and catering to the modern demand for novelty in presentation it makes a strong contribution to the conversation around professional collaboration visual communication knowledge transfer novel technologies and knowledge visualization
