Flash is for creating dynamic engaging web content and Adobe's CS4 release just makes it even better. Among the newer features is the ability to take all the power of Flash for the Web and put it on the desktop using AIR. AIR capability is built right into the Flash CS4 integrated development environment which means you can start writing desktop applications right away. This book not only covers the essentials of using Flash with AIR and AIR with Flash but also shows you how to extend application functionality in new ways. Once you've got Flash on the desktop you're no longer constrained by the limitations of running inside a web browser. You'll have access to the local desktop file system and AIR adds SQLite functionality for native database support. And just as Flash animations have a consistent look and feel across browsers, AIR allows you to create applications that work consistently across operating systems: Mac OS X, Windows, and Linux. For any Flash developer who wants to go from the Web to the desktop and who doesn't, this book is required reading. It not only tells you how to do it but is full of practical, easy-to-follow examples that will have you building desktop AIR applications with Flash in no time. Expanding your existing Flash skills with the Essential Guide to Flash CS4 AIR Development will make you an even more potent and indispensable force on any development team.

Screen Design Manual Frank Thissen, 2003-09-11. The Screen Design Manual provides designers of interactive media with a practical working guide for preparing and presenting information that is suitable for both their target groups and the media they are using. It highlights background information and relationships, clarifying them with examples and encourages the further development of the language of digital media. In addition to the basics of perception and learning, psychology, ergonomics, communication theory, imagery, research, and aesthetics, the book also considers design, navigation, and orientation elements. Guidelines and checklists along with the comprehensive design of the book support the transfer of information into practice. Frank Thissen teaches multimedia didactics and information design at the University of Applied Sciences in Stuttgart. For over 10 years, he has been developing computer-based training. He has worked for international companies such as Siemens AG and SAP AG. His research project explores the role of emotion in e-learning.
