Paula, Michael and Bob Gerry Agar, 2014-04-25 Here are the facts divulged in painful and deeply moving detail and told with an intimacy that could only be disclosed by one caught in the centre of the storm A Laodicean, Or, The Castle of the De Stancys : a Story of Today Thomas Hardy, 1893 All-story Magazine , 1918 In the Hands of God Johanna Bard Richlin, 2022-05-24 How evangelical churches in the United States convert migrant distress into positive religious devotion Why do migrants become more deeply evangelical in the United States and how does this religious identity alter their self understanding In the Hands of God examines this question through a unique lens foregrounding the ways that churches transform what migrants feel Drawing from her extensive fieldwork among Brazilian migrants in the Washington DC area Johanna Bard Richlin shows that affective experience is key to comprehending migrants turn toward intense religiosity and their resulting evangelical commitment The conditions of migrant life family separation geographic isolation legal precariousness workplace vulnerability and deep uncertainty about the future shape specific affective maladies including loneliness despair and feeling stuck These feelings in turn trigger novel religious yearnings Evangelical churches deliberately and deftly articulate manage and reinterpret migrant distress through affective therapeutics the strategic healing of migrants psychological pain Richlin offers insights into the affective dimensions of migration the strategies pursued by evangelical churches to attract migrants and the ways in which evangelical belonging enables migrants to feel better emboldening them to improve their lives Looking at the ways evangelical churches help migrants navigate negative emotions In the Hands of God sheds light on the versatility and durability of evangelical Christianity Father in Modern Story Maud Van Buren, Katharine Isabel Bemis, 1929 Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Sara Hayden, Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, 2010-06-14 Women who came of age in the late twentieth century were raised in the era of choice they grew up believing that reproductive decision making is a political right a responsibility of women living the successes of second wave feminism and under their control Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Explorations into Discourses of Reproduction explores contemporary maternity both within and in light of these late twentieth century understandings Employing a variety of feminist communication approaches the volume s contributors discuss how discourses of choice shape and are shaped by women s identities and experiences as non mothers and how those same discourses affect and reflect private practices and public policies related to reproduction and motherhood Through this process the contributors illustrate a variety of ways of conducting feminist thinking research and practices within the communication discipline Major sub disciplines within communication studies are represented here including feminist organizational interpersonal rhetorical critical cultural and social movement studies Whereas many of the previous scholarly investigations into maternity highlight only one aspect or phase of motherhood Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice is unique because it investigates discourses of choice across the arc of maternity and as enacted through various non maternal subject positions The Saturday Review , 1922
