Five Theban Tombs Norman de Garis Davies, 1977 Five Theban Tombs Nina de Garis Davies, Norman de Garis Davies, 1977 Five Theban Tombs, Being Those of Mentuherkhepeshef, User... by N. de Garis Davies... Norman de Garis Davies, 1913 Five Theban Tombs, Being Those of Mentuherkhepeshef, User, Daga, Nehemawäy and Tati. - With ... Plates Norman de Garis Davies, 1913 Five Theban Tombs, Being Those of Mentuherkhepeshef, User, Daga, Nehemawäy and Tati N. de Garis Davies, 1913 The Coffin of Hegata Harco Willems, 1996 The coffin published in this book represents a type that had some popularity in southern Upper Egypt in the early Middle Kingdom but which despite its extraordinary decoration had not attracted attention so far The most striking feature of the decoration is that the object friezes the pictorial rendering of ritual implements usually found on coffin interiors of the period also include complete ritual scenes some of which are attested only here Apart from this the decoration includes an extensive selection of the religious texts known as the Coffin Texts The author first studies the archaeological context and dating of the coffin and attempts a reconstruction of the construction procedures from his technical description of the monument The detailed account of the decoration in the rest of the book interprets the ritual iconography and offers fresh translations and interpretations of the Coffin Texts A methodological innovation is that he regards the scenes and texts not as individual decoration elements but as components of an integral composition The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased's regeneration The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion The Representations of Women in the Middle Kingdom Tombs of Officials Lubica Hudáková, 2019-07-22 In The Representations of Women in the Middle Kingdom Tombs of Officials Lubica Hudáková offers an in depth analysis of female iconography in the decorative programme of Middle Kingdom non royal tombs highlighting changes and innovations in comparison to the Old Kingdom Previously considered too uniform the study represents the first systematic investigation of two dimensional images of women and reveals their variability in space and time Hudáková examines the roles appointed to women by analyzing how they are depicted in a variety of contexts Taking into account their postures gestures garments hairstyles size of the body age as well as attributes and tools used by them along with the scene orientation she traces diachronic and diatopic developments and regional traditions in the Middle Kingdom tomb decoration Current Research in Egyptology 2019 Marta Arranz Cárcamo, Raúl Sánchez Casado, Albert Planelles Orozco, Sergio Alarcón Robledo, Jónatan Ortiz García, Patricia

Mora Riudavets, 2021-02-25 Presents proceedings from the 20th meeting of the prestigious international student Egyptology conference held at the University of Alcalá 2019 15 papers address a wide range of topics including all periods of ancient Egyptian History and different aspects of its material culture archaeology history society religion and language The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-27 Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom offers a new history of the field of Egyptian monastic archaeology It is the first study in English to trace how scholars identified a space or site as monastic within the Egyptian landscape and how such identifications impacted perceptions of monasticism Brooks Hedstrom then provides an ecohistory of Egypt's tripartite landscape to offer a reorientation of the perception of the physical landscape She analyzes late antique documentary evidence early monastic literature and ecclesiastical history before turning to the extensive archaeological evidence of Christian monastic settlements In doing so she illustrates the stark differences between idealized monastic landscape and the actual monastic landscape that was urbanized through monastic constructions Drawing upon critical theories in landscape studies materiality and phenomenology Brooks Hedstrom looks at domestic settlements of non monastic and monastic settlements to posit what features makes monastic settlements unique thus offering a new history of monasticism in Egypt Five Theban Tombs Norman de Garis Davies, 1979 Prophets, Lovers and Giraffes Orly Goldwasser, 2002 The book's central proposition is that the prominent feature of the hieroglyphic script which Egyptologists call determinatives makes up an elaborate system of classifiers All items of the lexicon take motivated pictorial classifiers By this device the script reflects the map of knowledge organization of ancient Egyptian culture The book aims to reveal the principles and constraints governing the codification of the ancient Egyptian universe in this system There is to date no comprehensive study either in Egyptology or in cognitive linguistics of the hieroglyphic classifiers as a structured system The present work attempts to fill the existing hiatus by bridging the disciplines of Egyptology and cognitive studies using the tools of the latter to elucidate the former and thus perhaps arrive at new perspectives on both From the Egyptological angle the book deals with the ancient Egyptians nomenclature for items in the world and the relationship between lexicon and the knowledge organization However the events occurring in the picture script render cognitive processes visible to our inspection hundreds of years before they have ripened into the Egyptian language This visibility bears directly on a number of crucial questions in cognitive linguistics and ethnobiology The book also includes an introduction to the hieroglyphic script The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology, 1914 Books Added Chicago Public Library, 1916 Who Was Who in Egyptology Morris L. Bierbrier, 2021-12-31 The civilization of ancient Egypt has been a source of fascination for explorers and scholars for centuries and has occupied a special place in the imagination of the public ever since early travellers descriptions and illustrations of the strange culture of temples tombs and hieroglyphs began to circulate around the world The story of Egyptology from a hobby for the educated and wealthy to a highly formalized academic discipline provides the key to understanding how and why we know what we know about ancient Egypt This
