Flag State Responsibility Flag State Responsibility:

Flag State Responsibility John N. K. Mansell, 2009-06-12 All of these flag States have the right to sail ships flying their flag on the high seas LOSC Article 90 and those ships enjoy the freedom of navigation upon the high seas LOSC Article 87 With this freedom comes a concomitant duty upon the flag State to effectively exercise its jurisdiction and control in administrative technical social LOSC Article 94 1 and environmental protection LOSC Article 217 matters over ships flying its flag 1 2 Flag State Responsibility The absence of any authority over ships sailing the high seas would lead to chaos One of the essential adjuncts to the principle of freedom of the seas is that a ship must fly the flag of a single State and that it is subject to the jurisdiction of that State Brown 1994 p 287 This opinion of the International Law Commission in 1956 on a draft article of the High Seas Convention HSC was a product of its time a time of traditional maritime States and responsible long established shipping companies operating for 3 the most part under the effective maritime administrations of their national flag

State Responsibility for Interferences with the Freedom of Navigation in Public International Law Philipp Wendel, 2007-10-25 A multitude of conventions in the area of the Law of the Sea contains provisions on the issue of compensation for wrongful interferences with navigation Even though interferences by warships and coast guard vessels due to a perceived increased risk of international crimes at sea seem to have become more frequent the compensation provisions have hardly been applied The book analyses all relevant compensation provisions and compares them to the general law of state responsibility This necessarily includes a discussion of issues like the responsibility of international organizations liability for lawful conduct and several and joint liability in public international law

FAO Informes de Pesca, 2009 This document contains the report of the FAO APFIC Regional Workshop on Port State Measures to Combat Illegal Unreported and Unregulated Fishing for the South Asian Subregion which was held in Bangkok Thailand from 10 to 13 February 2009 The objective of the Workshop was to develop national capacity and promote bilateral subregional and or regional coordination so that countries would be better placed to strengthen and harmonize port State measures and as a result implement further the 2001 FAO International Plan of Action to Prevent Deter and Eliminate Illegal Unreported and Unregulated Fishing the 2005 FAO Model Scheme on Port State Measures to Combat Illegal Unreported and Unregulated Fishing and the Chairperson's Draft Agreement on Port State Measures to Prevent Deter and Eliminate Illegal Unreported and Unregulated Fishing if and when it enters into force The Workshop addressed the background and framework for port State measures subregional and regional approaches to illegal unreported and unregulated fishing and the implementation of port State measures the Chairperson's Draft Agreement and the role of the Asia Pacific Fishery Commission national coordination and implementation of port State measures and perspectives on port State measures including responses to the FAO questionnaire that was circulated prior to the Workshop to collect information relating to port State measures in the South Asian subregion Working groups were formed to enhance the participatory nature of the Workshop and as a means of engendering broader and deeper discussion on concepts and issues relating to port State measures In the first exercise participants addressed multidisciplinary aspects of port State measures and in the second exercise thematic issues were considered The final session of the Workshop entitled Looking ahead and agenda for the subregion on port State measures sought to identify key issues to be addressed by countries after the Workshop Funding and support for the Workshop were provided by the FAO Regular Programme and by the Governments of Norway Sweden and the United States of America
