Embodied Encounters Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2014-11-13 What is the role of the unconscious in our visceral approaches to cinema Embodied Encounters offers a unique collection of essays written by leading thinkers and writers in film studies with a guiding principle that embodied and material existence can and perhaps ought to also allow for the unconscious The contributors embrace work which has brought the body back into film theory and question why psychoanalysis has been excluded from more recent interrogations The chapters included here engage with Jung and Freud Lacan and Bion and Klein and Winnicott in their interrogations of contemporary cinema and the moving image In three parts the book presents examinations of both classic and contemporary films including Black Swan Zero Dark Thirty and The Dybbuk Part 1 The Desire the Body and the Unconscious Part 2 Psychoanalytical Theories and the Cinema Part 3 Reflections and Destructions Mirrors and Transgressions Embodied Encounters is an eclectic volume which presents in one book the voices of those who work with different psychoanalytical paradigms It will be essential reading for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists scholars and students of film and culture studies and film makers

Creative Practice Research in the Age of Neoliberal Hopelessness Piotrowska Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2020-07-06 In Creative Practice Research in Film and Media creative practitioners discuss their experiences and examine how to retain integrity during times of political and economic battles in higher education and attempts to quantify creative work It uses the notion of tactical compliance to evaluate whether and when creative practitioners compromise their creativity by working within the higher education system It offers a space for reflection for both practitioners and theorists and it presents a much needed intervention which will be of interest to all academics engaged with creative practice as research

The Nasty Woman and The Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2018-12-07 The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema puts forward the theoretical notion of the nasty woman as a means of examining female protagonists in contemporary culture and cinema particularly films directed by women The phrase is taken from an insult thrown at Hillary Clinton during the 2016 Presidential election debates and reclaimed by the feminists worldwide The volume also draws from the figure of the femme fatale in film noir Piotrowska presents the nasty woman across cultural and mythical landscape as a figure fighting against the entitlement of the patriarchy The writer argues that in films such as Zero Dark Thirty Red Road Stories We Tell and even Gone Girl the nastiness of female characters creates a new space for reflection on contemporary society and its struggles against patriarchal systems The nasty woman or neo femme fatale is a figure who disrupts stable situations and norms she is pro active and self determining and at times unafraid to use dubious means to achieve her goals She is often single but when married she subverts and undermines the fundamental principles of this patriarchal institution For students and researchers in Cultural Studies Women s Gender and Sexuality Studies Film Studies and Psychoanalysis in Film Studies The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema offers an original way of thinking about female creativity and subjectivity It is also a proud celebration of feminist and female authorship in contemporary Hollywood

Horror Film and Affect Xavier Aldana Reyes, 2016-02-12 This book brings together various theoretical approaches to Horror that have received consistent academic attention since the 1990s abjection disgust cognition phenomenology pain studies to make a significant contribution to the study of fictional moving images of mutilation and the ways in which human bodies are affected by those on the screen on three levels representationally emotionally and somatically Aldana Reyes reads Horror viewership as eminently carnal and seeks to articulate the need for an alternative model that understands the experience of feeling under corporeal threat as the genre's main descriptor Using recent post millennial examples throughout the book also offers case studies of key films such as Hostel REC Martyrs or Ginger Snaps and considers contemporary Horror strands such as found footage or 3D Horror

Bion in Film Theory and Analysis Carla Ambrósio Garcia, 2016-12-01 In Bion in Film Theory and Analysis The Retreat in Film Carla Ambrósio Garcia introduces the rich potential of the thinking of British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion for film theory By so doing she rethinks the space of the cinema as a space of retreat and brings new insights into the representation of retreat in film Presented in two parts the book seeks to deepen our understanding of the film experience and psychical growth Part I places Bion's view on the importance of the epistemophilic instinct at the heart of a critique of the pleasure centred theories of the cinematic apparatus of Jean Louis Baudry Christian Metz and Gaylyn Studlar proposing an idea of cinema as thoughts in search of a thinker Garcia then moves from Bion's epistemological period to his later work which draws on mysticism in order to posit an emotional experience in the cinema through which the subject can be or become real or at one with O Part II examines representations of retreat in four European films directed by Ingmar Bergman Pier Paolo Pasolini Georges Perec and Bernard Queysanne and Manoel de Oliveira showing them to articulate a gesture of retreat as an emotionally turbulent transitional stage in the development of the psyche what Bion conceptualizes as caesura Through its investigation of the retreat in cinema the book challenges common understandings of retreat as a regressive movement by presenting it as a gesture and space that can also be future oriented Bion in Film Theory and Analysis will be of significant interest to academics and students of psychoanalysis psychotherapy and film and media studies as well as psychoanalysts and psychotherapists

Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy Current Research in Britain ,1993

Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company,1999 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900 1960 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Virtual Intimacy and Communication in Film Andrea Sabbadini,Ilan Kogan,Paola Golinelli,2018-09-03 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Virtual Intimacy and Communication in Film brings together a group of psychoanalysts to explore through film the new forms of communication mainly the internet that enter more and more frequently into the affective lives of people their intimacy and even the analytic room The contributors all practising psychoanalysts analyse the potential and surprising transformations that human relationships including psychoanalysis are undergoing At present it is difficult to value the future importance and predict the possible disquieting consequences of the use and abuse of the new technologies we run the risk of finding ourselves unprepared to face this revolutionary transformation in human connections and affects Will it be possible in a near future that human beings prefer to fall in love with a machine gifted with a persuasive voice instead of a psychoanalyst in person The contributors explore the idea that virtual intimacy could begin to replace real life in sentimental and psychoanalytic relationships Imagination and fantasy may be strengthened and may ultimately prevail over the body excluding it entirely Can the voice of the analyst sometimes transmitted only by telephone or computer produce a good enough analytic process as if it were in person or will it help to foster a process of idealisation and progressive alienation from real life and connections with other human beings The film Her 2013 alongside others offers a wonderful script for discussing this matter because of the deep and thoughtful examination of love and relationships in the contemporary world that it provides Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Virtual Intimacy and Communication in Film will be of great interest to all psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists interested in the ongoing impact of technology on human relationships

Visual Politics of Psychoanalysis Griselda Pollock,2013-10-08 Activists working in post traumatic societies have tended to resist psychoanalytical terms because they fear that pathologizing individual suffering displaces the collective and political causes of traumatic violence In a contrary direction some thinkers about discourse and power have latterly embraced what Judith Butler insists is the psychic life of power An openly psychoanalytical modelling of trauma for approaching major historical events such as the Holocaust adds yet a third position Drawing on all three strands this book poses the question of visual politics to psychoanalysis It also explores the relevance of the many psychoanalyses to the study of art and other

images in post traumatic conditions Visual Politics of Psychoanalysis builds on maverick art historian Aby Warburg's project of combining social cultural anthropological and psychological analyses of the image in order to track the undercurrents of cultural violence in the representational repertoire of Western modernity In this innovative collection a distinguished group of international authors dare to think psychoanalytically about the legacies of political violence and suffering in relation to post traumatic cultures worldwide Drawing on post colonial and feminist theory they analyse the image and the aesthetic in conditions of historical trauma from enslavement and colonisation to the Irish Famine from Denmark's national trauma about migrants and cartoons to collective shock after 9 11 from individual traumas of loss registered in allegory to newsreels and documentaries on suicide bombing in Israel Palestine from Kristeva's novels to Kathryn Bigelow's cinema Phantom Limbs and Body Integrity Identity Disorder Monika Loewy, 2019-11-21 Phantom Limbs and Body Integrity Identity Disorder discusses the conditions of Phantom Limb Syndrome and Body Integrity Identity Disorder together for the first time exploring examples from literature film and psychoanalysis to re ground theories of the body in material experience The book outlines the ways in which PLS and BIID involve a feeling of rupture underlined by a desire for wholeness using the metaphor of the mirror box a therapeutic device that alleviates phantom limb pain to examine how fiction is fundamentally linked to our physical and psychical realities Using diverse examples from theoretical and fictional works including thinkers such as Sigmund Freud Jacques Lacan Maurice Blanchot D W Winnicott and Georges Perec and films by Powell and Pressburger and Quentin Tarantino each chapter offers a detailed exploration of the mind body relationship and experiences of fragmentation bodily ownership and symbolic reconstitution By tracing these concepts the monograph demonstrates ways in which fiction can enable us to understand the psychosomatic conditions of PLS and BIID more thoroughly while providing new ways of reading psychoanalysis literary theory and fictional works The first book to analyse BIID in relation to PLS Phantom Limbs and Body Integrity Identity Disorder will be essential reading for academics and literary readers interested in the body psychoanalysis English literature literary theory film and disability A Beholder's Share Dodi Goldman, 2017 A Beholder's Share is a comprehensive guide to Dodi Goldman's unique psychoanalytic sensibility At heart this book demonstrates how a sense of reality is evoked in the unpredictable space between imagination and adaptation Though usually viewed as opposites reality and imagination make uneasy but necessary bedfellows The world calls forth something in each of us a beholder's share which in turn calls forth something in the world Psychoanalysis and Cinema, 1991 Psychoanalysis and the Cinema Raymond Williams, John Berger, 1978 Dislocated Subject Lorena Preta, 2017-09-30 The time is out of joint This famous line from William Shakespeare's Hamlet helps to describe the impression of de centering of deconstruction which we currently live and experience This phenomenon is caused by various factors and while it is happening worldwide partly as a result of globalization itself it is perceived in different ways in the various cultures and countries of the world We find ourselves in front of an hybrid individual fruit of diverse cultures blending The new means of communication and social organization that characterize our times to such a large extent that we may possibly consider finding ourselves at the dawn of a new subject a bearer of transformations the extent of which is difficult to measure In a world which is dominated by new ways of communication virtual space technology that subverts the perception of the body by cyborg as new hybridization post human by the cult of the body and youth by the new definitions of sexuality the new organisations of the family by the desire to procreate whatever it takes all that tell us about an overflowing of the subject but dislocated fragmented and far from its original identity
