Adaptation in the Age of Media Convergence Johannes Fehrle, Werner Schäfke-Zell, 2025-10-01 This collection considers new phenomena emerging in a convergence environment from the perspective of adaptation studies The contributions take the most prominent methods within the field to offer reconsiderations of theoretical concepts and practices in participatory culture transmedia franchises and new media adaptations The authors discuss phenomena ranging from mash ups of novels and YouTube cover songs to negotiations of authorial control and interpretative authority between media producers and fan communities to perspectives on the fictional and legal framework of brands and franchises In this fashion the collection expands the horizons of both adaptation and transmedia studies and provides reassessments of frequently discussed BBC s Sherlock or the LEGO franchise and previously largely ignored phenomena self censorship in transnational franchises mash up novels or YouTube cover videos Cultivating Copyright Bhamati Viswanathan, 2019-06-27 Creators and creative industries are struggling to navigate the digital age Intellectual property rights including copyrights trademarks and patents offer invaluable tools to help creative industries remain viable and sustainable But to be fully effective they must be considered as part of a greater ecosystem Cultivating Copyright offers a framework for tailoring flexible strategies and adaptive solutions suited to diverse creative industries Tailored solutions entail change on four fronts business models and strategies legal policies and practices technological measures and cultural and normative features Creating strong creative industries through tailored solutions serves critical functions promoting richly varied artistic endeavors and supporting democratic flourishing Media Today Joseph Turow, 2016-10-04 Media Today uses convergence as a lens that puts students at the center of the profound changes in the 21st century media world Through the convergence lens they learn to think critically about the role of media today and what these changes mean for their lives presently and in the future The book s media systems approach helps students to look carefully at how media content is created distributed and exhibited in the new world that the digital revolution has created From newspapers to video games and social networking to mobile platforms Media Today prepares students to live in the digital world of media The Global EBook Market: Current Conditions & Future Projections Ruediger Wischenbart, 2013-02-11 The Global eBook Report documents and analyses how ebook markets emerge in the US UK continental Europe Brazil China India Russia and the Arab world It combines the best available data and references to specialized local actors with thematic chapters focusing on critical policy debates and on key driving forces notably ebook bestsellers and pricing strategies across European markets self publishing government regulation piracy and the expanding impact of global players The Global eBook Report is available for download from October 1st 2013 at www global ebook com A project of R diger Wischenbart Content and Consulting Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media

provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression. The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context Mediated Intimacy Meg-John Barker, Rosalind Gill, Laura Harvey, 2018-02-27 Mediated Intimacy looks at contemporary sex and relationship advice exploring how our intimate lives are shaped through different media from manuals and magazines to television and Twitter By exploring how intimacy is constructed through different media texts the authors consider which ideas and practices these changing forms of sexpertise open up and which they close down The book reveals the intimate operation of power in mediated advice how words and images stories and sound can work to shore up social injustice It critically engages with the ideas of choice and responsibility in sex self help arguing that these can obscure and or justify oppression even if they re sometimes experienced as empowering and or pleasurable This bold and incisive book provides a radical challenge to the assumptions underlying the sex advice industry and presents a critical collaborative and consensual vision for sex advice of The Routledge Companion to Literary Media Astrid Ensslin, Julia Round, Bronwen Thomas, 2023-08-30 The the future Routledge Companion to Literary Media examines the fast moving present and future of a media ecosystem in which the literary continues to play a vital role The term literary media challenges the tendency to hold the two terms distinct and broadens accepted usage of the literary to include popular cultural forms emerging technologies and taste cultures genres and platforms as well as traditions and audiences all too often excluded from literary histories and canons Featuring contributions from leading international scholars and practitioners the Companion provides a comprehensive guide to existing terms and theories that address the alignment of literature and a variety of media forms It situates the concept in relation to existing theories and histographies considers emerging genres and forms such as locative narratives and autofiction and expands discussion beyond the boundaries by which literary authorship is conventionally defined Contributors also examine specific production and publishing contexts to provide in depth analysis of the promotion of literary media materials The volume further considers reading and other aspects of situated audience engagement such as Indigenous and oral storytelling prize and review cultures book clubs children and young adults This authoritative collection is an invaluable resource for scholars and students working at the intersection of literary and media studies

Transhumanism and Posthumanism in Twenty-First Century Narrative Sonia Baelo-Allué, Mónica Calvo-Pascual, 2021-05-05 Transhumanism and Posthumanism in Twenty First Century Narrative brings together fifteen scholars from five different countries to explore the different ways in which the posthuman has been addressed in contemporary culture and more specifically in key narratives written in the second decade of the 21st century by Dave Eggers William Gibson John Shirley Tom McCarthy Jeff Vandermeer Don DeLillo Margaret Atwood Cixin Liu and Helen Marshall Some of these works engage in the premises and perils of transhumanism while others explore the qualities of the post human in a variety of dystopian futures marked by the planetary influence of human action From a critical posthumanist perspective that questions anthropocentrism human exceptionalism and the centrality of the human subject in the era of the Anthropocene the scholars in this collection analyse the aesthetic choices these authors make to depict the posthuman and its aftereffects The Herald .2012 Chase's Calendar of Events 2016 Editors of Chase's, 2015-09-11 Chase s Calendar of Events is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference available on special events holidays federal and state observances historic anniversaries astronomical phenomena and more Published since 1957 Chase s is the only guide to special days weeks and months Microtimes ,1992-08 Parade of Programs ,2003 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
