Bunni, 2013-02-05 In September 1999 FIDIC introduced its new Suite of Contracts which included a new Red Yellow Silver and Green forms of contract The new Red Book was intended to replace the 1992 fourth edition of the Red Book with the ambition that its use would cease with time This ambition has not materialised and is unlikely to do so in the future Despite the importance of the 1999 Forms there has been very little published on the new concepts adopted in them and how they interact with the previous forms This important work considers these aspects together with the many developments affecting the fourth edition of the Red Book that have taken place since 1997 when the second edition of this book was published and relates them to key contracting issues It is written by a chartered engineer conciliator and international arbitrator with wide experience in the use of the FIDIC Forms and in the various dispute resolution mechanisms specified in them Important features of this book include background and concepts of the various forms of contract a detailed comparison of the wording of the 1999 three main forms which although similar in nature it nevertheless significantly differs in certain areas where the three forms diverge due to their intended purpose analysis of the rights and obligations of the parties involved in the contract and the allocation of risks concerned a range of decision tree charts analysing the main features of the 1992 Red Book including risks indemnities and insurances claims and counterclaims variations procedure for claims programme and delay suspension payments and certificates dispute resolution mechanisms and dispute boards a much enlarged discussion of the meaning of claim and dispute and the types of claim with a discussion of the Notice provision in the 1999 forms of contract for the submittal of claims by a contractor and by an employer the FIDIC scheme of indemnities and insurance requirements and the methods of dispute resolution provided by the various forms of contract and five new chapters in this third edition the first four chapters deal with each of the 1999 forms and the fifth chapter is confined to the topic of Dispute Boards

FIDIC - A Guide for Practitioners Axel-Volkmar Jaeger, Götz-Sebastian Hök, 2009-11-11 In 1999 a suite of three new conditions of contract was published by FIDIC following the basic structure and wording harmonised and updated around the previous FIDIC Design Build and Turnkey Contract the 1992 Orange Book These conditions known as the FIDIC rainbow were the Conditions of Contract for Construction the so called Red Book for works designed by the Employer Plant and Design Build the so called Yellow Book for works designed by the Contractor EPC Turnkey Projects the so called Silver Book for works designed by the Contractor The rst is intended for construction works where the Employer is responsible for the design as for per the previous so called Red Book 4th Edition 1987 with an important role for the Engineer The other two conditions of contract are intended for situations when the Contractor is responsible for the design The Plant and Design Build Contract has the traditional Engineer while the EPC Turnkey Contract has a two party arrangement generally with an Employer's Representative as one of the parties

The International Application of FIDIC Contracts Donald Charrett, 2019-10-10 FIDIC contracts are the most widely used contracts for international construction around the world and are used in many different jurisdictions both common law and civil law For any construction project the General Conditions of Contract published by FIDIC need to be supplemented by Particular Conditions that specify the specific requirements of that project The International Application of FIDIC Contracts A Practical Guide provides readers with detailed guidance and resources for the preparation of the Particular Conditions that will comply with the requirements of the applicable laws that apply to the site where the work is carried out and for the governing law of the contract for a number of the jurisdictions in which FIDIC contracts are used This book is essential reading for construction professionals lawyers and students of construction law

The FIDIC Contracts Andy Hewitt, 2014-04-25 It is vital to ensure that your company complies with its contractual obligations It is also vital to check whether the other parties are complying with theirs This book was written to help those involved in the management of busy construction projects to find answers to contractual issues arising from the FIDIC forms of contract The book is organised in such a way that you can find answers in a fraction of the time it would take to study the full conditions of contract This book sets out the contractual obligations of the Employer the Contractor the Engineer and the DAB in a simple tabular form together with the time frames in which they should be performed and the consequences of non compliance This means that you will have all the information at your fingertips without having to study lengthy contractual clauses For those using the FIDIC forms for the first time or perhaps not using them too often this book is a must whilst experienced users will find it provides a valuable checklist Whichever category you fall into using this book should improve both knowledge and efficiency The book is ideal for engineers quantity surveyors contract managers and any person whose job it is to understand the workings of a FIDIC contract Roger Knowles had this to say The most important part of any contract is the obligations of the parties the time frames in which the parties must perform these obligations and the consequences of failing to meet them Failure to carry out obligations correctly is a serious risk and common source of contention or claims This practical ready reference on the contractual obligations of the various parties for a FIDIC construction contract promotes efficient administration of construction projects prevents contention and aids an easier understanding of their obligations The FIDIC Contracts Obligations of the Parties is presented in an easily referenced tabular format The Red Pink Red Book Subcontract Yellow Silver Gold Pink Green and White Books are all included and for ease of reference each contract is separated into sections relating to the Employer the Contractor the Engineer or the equivalent and
