

Every Christian needs to experience transformation. This book starts you off on the right track. It deals with salvation and discipleship and the need for discipline in our spiritual walk with God. The spiritual disciplines do not bring about transformation, but they put us in a place where we can be transformed by the Lord as we walk in the Spirit. These disciplines need to be learnt, practiced and taught.

The Disciplines discussed include: Discovering who the Master is, Abiding in Christ, Prayer, Witnessing, Disciple Making, Studying the Word, Practicing the Presence of God, Worship, Stewardship, Servanthood, Renewal of the Mind, Fasting, Forgiveness, Love and Obedience.

Jesus never intended that some would be mere believers or converts and others would be disciples. He simply said: "Follow me." Being a disciple, a follower of Jesus and making other people his disciples too is the fulfilling of the Great Commission. This is not an event; it's an exciting, life changing journey.

This book is for everyone longing for more, for new Christians and those who have known the Lord a lifetime.

"It is indeed a privilege to be able to find solid teaching material such as this and use it in our small group effectively. This is life changing spiritual food that I will be dining on until the finish line. We found its candid, crystal clear honesty refreshing in an age of blurred biblical truth."

Mark Cander – Small group leader

"Jesus called us to make disciples – Steven Looft has captured the essential elements of what it means to be a disciple and how to make it work. This is a balanced book which will help mature followers who are in a rut; as well as those needing encouragement and practical advice, on how to grow spiritually. It is also a great gift for new Believers to help orientate them; it provides an insight into the Biblical Big Picture of what it means to follow Christ."

Martin Dawson

This is the Second Edition. Over 30,000 copies of the First Edition have been printed and distributed. In this edition Steven has added clarity and depth which will help you grow to maturity in Christ.
