Edward Watkins, Jr., Derek L. Milne, 2014-06-03 This is the first handbook to examine the theory research and practice of clinical supervision from an international multi disciplinary perspective Focuses on conceptual and research foundations practice foundations core skills measuring competence and supervision perspectives Includes original articles by contributors from around the world including Australia Finland Hong Kong Slovenia South Africa Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States Addresses key aspects of supervision including competency frameworks evidence based practice supervisory alliances qualitative and quantitative assessment diversity sensitive supervision and more Features timely and authoritative coverage of the latest research in the field and novel ideas for clinical practice Clinical Supervision in Latin America Maria del Pilar Grazioso, Rodney K. Goodyear, Marria Isabel Gallardo-Cooper, Hector Fernandez-Alvarez, Carol A. Falender, Ana Alicia Cobar, 2025-09-01 The edited volume Clinical Supervision in Latin America Voices from the Field is unique as it is the first to explore clinical supervision and professional formation in psychology from the perspective of twenty eight scholars It offers a groundbreaking exploration of clinical supervision from a distinctly Latin American perspective It delves into the current state of clinical supervision Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia Cuba Guatemala Mexico Puerto Rico and the United States providing an honest evaluation of each country s strengths challenges and unique processes while highlighting bold initiatives that are driving progress in the field The authors also cast an eye to the future suggesting strategies for further growth and development across Latin America

Each chapter delves into the development of psychotherapists through training and supervision focusing on essential elements such as university programs ethical standards professional regulatory bodies and training models The authors critically analyse these components through the lenses of culture and diversity demonstrating how they influence training address professional challenges and inspire innovative solutions within their communities The book also highlights various supervision formats including individual and group sessions face to face interactions virtual platforms and other remote technologies The chapters offer valuable insights into the mechanisms that safeguard client well being opportunities for ongoing supervisor training and the current state of supervision and research both completed and underway Different supervision models from various countries are explained emphasizing their origins the dynamics of the supervisory alliance and the processes for repairing ruptures in these relationships The quality of feedback and the resources that support supervision are tailored to each country s specific needs ensuring cultural relevance while drawing on the expertise of the authors Supervisors employ evaluation tools such as self reports verification scales and direct observation to ensure comprehensive oversight Contributors highlight the value and implications of challenging cultural norms by continuing to blaze a trail The exploration leads to a look into the future and actions considered to further the growth and development of clinical supervision in Latin America

Research on Emotion and Learning: Contributions from Latin America

Camilo Hurtado-Parrado, Carlos Gantiva, Leonardo A. Ortega, Alexander Gómez-A, Lucas Cuenya, Javier Leonardo Rico, 2020-05-11 Latin America has increased its share of world scientific publications by nearly twofold during the last two decades approximately from 2 to 4% Despite this positive trend the scholarly impact of scientific research produced in the region measured in terms of citation rate remains low Two interrelated factors that contribute to this situation is that most research groups tend to work in isolation or in local sporadic collaboration and results are often published in journals that are not indexed in major citation databases e g SCOPUS or Web of Science Ultimately part of Latin American high quality research seems to remain hidden from the rest of the world Over the last decades an important number of Latin American scientists have developed fruitful research agendas on questions on learning and emotion focusing on basic and or translational research with humans and other animal models and implementing diverse methodologies Notwithstanding the important contributions of these research programs Latin American research on emotion and learning has followed the overall trend of other research fields throughout the region namely remaining partially hidden from the large scientific community of the world This Research Topic aimed to engage researchers from Latin America to share their empirical and conceptual work on learning and emotion Ultimately this effort was expected to strengthen and integrate our regional community of experts enhance global networking and establish new challenges and developments for future investigation
