Ex-Cinema Akira Mizuta Lippit, 2012-09-30 ROY GRUNDMANN author of Andy Warhol's Blow Job Ex-Cinema Akira Lippit, 2012-09-30 What does it mean for film and video to be experimental In this collection of essays framed by the concept of meaning from outside and no longer Akira Mizuta Lippit explores the aesthetic technical and theoretical reverberations of avant garde film and video Ex Cinema is a sustained reflection on the ways in which experimental media artists move outside the conventions of mainstream cinema and initiate a dialogue on the meaning of cinema itself Towards a Film Theory from Below Jiri Anger, 2024-05-30 Operating between film theory media philosophy archival practice and audiovisual research Jiri Anger focuses on the relationship between figuration and materiality in early films experimental found footage cinema and video essays Would it be possible to do film theory from below through the perspective of moving image objects of their multifarious details and facets however marginal unintentional or aleatory they might be Could we treat scratches stains and shakes in archival footage as speculatively and aesthetically generative features Do these material actors have the capacity to create weird shapes within the figurative image that decenter distort and transform the existing conceptual and methodological frameworks Building on his theoretical as well as practical experience with the recently digitized corpus of the first Czech films created by Jan Kroneck between 1898 and 1911 the author demonstrates how technological defects and accidents in archival films shape their aesthetic function and our understanding of the materiality of film in the digital age The specific clashes between the figurative and material spheres are understood through the concept of a crack up This term developed by Francis Scott Fitzgerald and theoretically reimaged by Gilles Deleuze allows us to capture the convoluted relationship between figuration and materiality as inherent to the medium of film containing negativity and productivity difference and simultaneity contingency and fate at the same time even within the tiniest cinematic units Unwatchable Nicholas Baer, Maggie Hennefeld, Laura Horak, Gunnar Iversen, 2019-01-14 We all have images that we find unwatchable whether for ethical political or sensory and affective reasons From news coverage of terror attacks to viral videos of police brutality and from graphic horror films to transgressive artworks many of the images in our media culture might strike us as unsuitable for viewing Yet what does it mean to proclaim something unwatchable disturbing revolting poor tedious or literally inaccessible With over 50 original essays by leading scholars artists critics and curators this is the first book to trace the unwatchable across our contemporary media environment in which viewers encounter difficult content on various screens and platforms Appealing to a broad academic and general readership the volume offers multidisciplinary approaches to the vast array of troubling images that circulate in global visual culture Metacinema David LaRocca, 2021 When a work of art shows an interest in its own status as a work of art either by reference to itself or to other works we have become accustomed to calling this move meta While scholars and critics have for decades acknowledged reflexivity in films it is only in Metacinema for the first time that a group of leading and emerging film theorists join to enthusiastically debate the meanings and implications of the meta for cinema In ten new essays on vital canonical films including 8 1 2 Holy Motors Funny Games and Clouds of Sils Maria contributors chart explore and advance the ways in which metacinema is at once a mode of filmmaking and a heuristic for studying cinematic attributes What results is not just an engagement with certain practices and concepts in widespread use in the movies from Hollywood to global cinema from documentary to the experimental and avant garde but also the development of a veritable and vital new genre of film studies With more and more films expressing reflexivity recursion reference to other films mise en ab me seriality and exhibiting related intertextual traits the time is overdue for the kind of capacious yet nuanced critical study found in Metacinema      Cinema without

Reflection Akira Mizuta Lippit, 2016-03-30 Cinema without Reflection traces an implicit film theory in Jacques Derrida's oeuvre especially in his frequent invocation of the myth of Echo and Narcissus Derrida's reflections on the economies of image and sound that reverberate in this story along with the spectral dialectics of love mirrors and poesis serve as the basis for a theory of cinema that Derrida perhaps secretly imagined Following Derrida's interventions on Echo and Narcissus across his thought on the visual arts Akira Mizuta Lippit seeks to return to a theory of cinema adrift in Derrida's philosophy Forerunners is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital works Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship      Stories of Almost Everyone Aram Moshayedi, 2018 Exhibition catalogue Hammer Museum Los Angeles

January 28 May 6 2018      The Autobiographical Documentary in America Jim Lane, 2002-04-29 Since the late 1960s American film and video makers of all genres have been fascinated with themes of self and identity Though the documentary form is most often used to capture the lives of others Jim Lane turns his lens on those media makers who document their own lives and identities He looks at the ways in which autobiographical documentaries including Roger and Me Sherman's March and Silverlake Life raise weighty questions about American cultural life What is the role of women in society What does it mean to die from AIDS How do race and class play out in our personal lives What does it mean to be a member of a family Examining the history diversity and theoretical underpinnings of this increasingly popular documentary form Lane tracks a fundamental transformation of notions of both autobiography and documentary      The Cinema Book Pam
