Activating Your Personal Faith to Receive: 25 Biblical Principles for Releasing the Power Within! Rich Brott, 2000-09 Author Rich Brott notes that faith is a choice an act of the human will It is a deliberate choice to place confidence in God and His Word Unbelief is a sin because it is a deliberate choice to withhold confidence in God and His Word Faith is a receiving of the truth an embracing of the truth and a commitment to the God of truth And commitment always produces action That is why faith without works is dead With no action there is no commitment With no commitment there is no faith In this book you will find 25 faith building principles that will enlarge your capacity to receive the very best that God has to offer you

Le cours de la riviere du Rhein ... , Believing by Faith John Bishop, 2007-04-12 Can it be justifiable to commit oneself by faith to a religious claim when its truth lacks adequate support from one's total available evidence In Believing by Faith John Bishop defends a version of fideism inspired by William James's 1896 lecture The Will to Believe By critiquing both isolationist Wittgensteinian and Reformed epistemologies of religious belief Bishop argues that anyone who accepts that our publicly available evidence is equally open to theistic and naturalist atheistic interpretations will need to defend a modest fideist position This modest fideism understands theistic commitment as involving doxastic venture practical commitment to propositions held to be true through passionate causes causes other than the recognition of evidence of or for their truth While Bishop argues that concern about the justifiability of religious doxastic venture is ultimately moral concern he accepts that faith ventures can be morally justifiable only if they are in accord with the proper exercise of our rational epistemic capacities Legitimate faith ventures may thus never be counter evidential and furthermore may be made supra evidentially only when the truth of the faith proposition concerned necessarily cannot be settled on the basis of evidence Bishop extends this Jamesian account by requiring that justifiable faith ventures should also be morally acceptable both in motivation and content Hard line evidentialists however insist that all religious faith ventures are morally wrong Bishop thus conducts an extended debate between fideists and hard line evidentialists arguing that neither side can succeed in establishing the irrationality of its opposition He concludes by suggesting that fideism may nevertheless be morally preferable as a less dogmatic more self accepting even a more loving position than its evidentialist rival

Science and Faith within Reason Jaume Navarro, 2016-04-01 Scientists historians philosophers and theologians often engage in debates on the limitations and mutual interactions of their respective fields of study Serious discussions are often overshadowed by the mass produced popular and semi popular literature on science and religion as well as by the political agendas of many of the actors in these debates For some reducing religion and science to forms of social discourse is a possible way out from epistemological overlapping between them yet is there room for religious faith only when science dissolves into one form of social discourse The religion thus rescued would have neither rational legitimisation nor metaphysical validity but if both scientific and religious theories try to make absolute claims on all possible aspects of reality then conflict between them seems almost inevitable In this book leading authors in the field of science and religion including William Carroll Steve Fuller Karl Giberson and Roger Trigg highlight the oft neglected and profound philosophical foundations that underlie some of the most frequent questions at the boundary between science and religion the reality of knowledge and the notions of creation life and design In tune with Mariano Artigas s work the authors emphasise that these are neither religious nor scientific but serious philosophical questions     Evidence that Demands a Verdict Josh McDowell,1977     The Law of Evidence Applicable to British India India,Syed Ameer Ali,Sir John George Woodroffe,1907     The Evidence of Your Faith Elcardo A. Moore, Sr.,2019-09 The evidence of one s life must agree with one s confession People cannot see our spirit they need to see some evidence outwardly Evidence in your heart evidence in your relationship and finally Evidence in your heart evidence in your relationship and finally evidence in your giving     Evidence that Demands a Verdict Josh McDowell,1975     Biblical Principles for Releasing Financial Provision! Rich Brott, Frank Damazio,2005 Biblical Principles for Releasing Financial Provision is a remarkable resource that is all at once a gift tool and mantle You will find that this study will be a true gift for anyone As a tool this material will help build and edify disciples of Christ with apostolic doctrine And a mantle as God covenants to bless those who live out the principles of giving revealed in this book Step forward and receive the gift tool and mantle Book jacket
