W. Mina, Ryan P. Shepherd, 2024-02-15 Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer explores transfer across various contexts of multimodal composing extending the early conversations connecting multimodality to writing Contributors address how writing transfer theories intersect with multimodal composing and present methods for facilitating transfer across modes and media offering insight into how writers can learn to compose when they encounter familiar modes in new contexts Over the past two decades the concepts of multimodal composing and writing transfer have grown and reshaped the nature of writing studies but rarely have the ways in which these areas overlap been studied This collection shows how this shift in writing studies has been mutually informative covering a wider range of contexts for multimodality and writing transfer than just in first year composition courses It places composition teaching practices and multimodal research in conversation with learning transfer theory to provide an in depth examination of how they influence one another Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer develops these intersections to connect multimodal composition and writing practices across a wide array of fields and contexts Scholars across disciplines postsecondary writing teachers writing program administrators writing center directors and graduate students will find this collection indispensable Understanding Everyday Communicative Interactions Julie A. Hengst, 2020-03-25 Understanding Everyday Communicative Interactions is a unique text that uses a situated discourse analysis SDA framework to examine basic human communication and the interactions of those with communicative disorders in everyday and clinical settings The book introduces SDA as a theoretical and empirical approach for examining the complexities of communicative interaction It explores how people collaborate in everyday contexts to communicate successfully and how they learn to do so From close analysis of a pretend game played by two children and their father to an observation of a man with aphasia and his family at a football match the present volume offers rich portraits of communicative lives and illustrates the applications of SDA The final part of the book uses SDA methods to demonstrate how clinicians can function as communication partners even during assessments and can design rich communicative environments for therapeutic interventions In explaining the SDA framework and equipping readers with the tools to understand the nature of human communication this sophisticated and engaging book will be an essential reference for students researchers and clinicians in communication sciences and disorders The Literary Mind Jürgen

Schlaeger, 2008 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2007 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2008-12 Medical and Health Care Books and Serials in Print, 1997 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 Paperbacks in Print, 1979 Advancing Multimodal and Critical Discourse Studies Sumin Zhao, Emilia Djonov, Anders Björkvall, Morten Boeriis, 2017-09-08 As a founder and leading figure in multimodality and social semiotics Theo van Leeuwen has made significant contributions to a variety of research fields including discourse analysis sociolinguistics communication and media studies education and design In celebration of his illustrious research career this volume brings together a group of leading and emerging scholars in these fields to review explore and advance two central research agendas set out by van Leeuwen the categorisation of the meaning potential of various semiotic resources and the examination of their uses in different forms of communication and the critical analysis of the interaction between semiotic forms norms and technology in discursive practices Through 11 cutting edge research papers and an experimental visual essay the book investigates a broad range of semiotic resources including touch sound image texture and discursive practices such as community currency fitness regime film scoring and commodity upcycling The book showcases how social semiotics and multimodality can provide insights into the burning issues of the day such as global neoliberalism terrorism consumerism and immigration

Multimodal Semiotics Len Unsworth, 2008-11-07 This volume presents an overview of new developments and applications of social semiotic theory Pioneered by M A K Halliday social semiotic theory sees meaning as created through the interaction of texts including writing images sound and space within a given context Divided into five sections the contributors use social semiotic theory to analyse a range of contexts including the classroom the museum and cinema The case studies show the range and scope of this method of analysis and include the school curriculum literacy print media online resources film and advertising Multimodal Semiotics will be of interest to academics researching social semiotic theory systemic functional linguistics and applied linguistics

The Semiotics of Discourse Jacques Fontanille, 2006 Original Scholarly Monograph

Semiotic Margins Shoshana Dreyfus, Susan Hood, Maree Stenglin, 2010-12-16 Semiotic Margins analyses the meaning making potential of not only language but modalities like laughter music colour and architectural spaces By examining resources often positioned on the side line of mainstream semiotic accounts this study raises the question of what counts as part of language and communication and why Beginning with the more established nonverbal resources of communication four major themes of modalities of meaning are covered The investigation of music and space looks at how semiotic systems in classical music interact Using children s books the relationship between images and verbal meaning is then explored presenting implications for student literacy as well as a methodology for supporting children excluded from mainstream literary practices Finally new approaches to transcribing representations in screen based technologies are presented through an examination of television advertisements Semiotic Margins will appeal to linguists and semioticians wishing to pursue research in systemic functional linguistics and multimodal discourse analysis

Discourse and Practice Theo Van Leeuwen, 2008 This book presents a new theory of discourse arguing that our understanding of texts ultimately rests on our practices and on what we do It will be welcomed by students and researchers looking for a form of discourse analysis that is explicit and methodical as well as socially and critically relevant

Social Semiotics Thomas Hestbaek Andersen, Morten Boeriis, Eva Maagerø, Elise Seip Tonnessen, 2015-03-27 M A K Halliday s work has been hugely influential in linguistics and beyond since the 1960s This is a collection of interviews with key figures in the generation of social semioticians who have taken Halliday s concept of social semiotics and developed it further in various directions making their own original contributions to theory and practice This book highlights their main lines of thought and considers how they relate to both the original concept of social semiotics and to each other Key themes include Linguistic studies multilinguality and evolution of language Text discourse and classroom studies Digital texts computer communication and science teaching Multimodal text and discourse analysis Education and literacy Media work and visual and audio modes Critical Discourse Analysis Featuring interviews with leading figures from linguistics education and communication studies a framing introduction and concluding chapter summing up commonalities and differences connections and conflicts and key themes this is essential reading for any scholar or student working in the area of social semiotics and systemic functional linguistics Additional video resources are available on the Routledge website Featuring Christian M I M Matthiessen Theo Van Leeuwen James R Martin Jay Lemke Gunther Kress
