Transnational Spanish Studies Catherine Davies, Rory O'Bryen, 2020-06-17 The focus of this book is two fold First it traces the expansive geographical spread of the language commonly referred to as Spanish This has given rise to multiple hybrid formations over time emerging in the clash of multiple cultures languages and religions within and between great empires Roman Islamic Hispano Catholic each with expansionist policies leading to wars huge territorial gains and population movements This long history makes Hispanophone culture itself a supranational trans imperial one long before we witness its various national cultures being refashioned as a result of the transnational processes associated with globalization today Indeed the Spanish language we recognise today was transnational long before it was ever the foundation of a single nation state Secondly it approaches the more recent post national translingual and inter subjective border crossings that characterise the global world today with an eye to their unfolding within this long trans imperial history of the Hispanophone world In doing so it maps out some of the contemporary post colonial decolonial and trans Atlantic inflections of this trans imperial history as manifest in literature cinema music and digital cultures Contributors Christopher J Pountain L P Harvey James T Monroe Rosaleen Howard Mark Thurner Alexander Samson Andrew Ginger Samuel Llano Philip Swanson Claire Taylor Emily Baker Elzbieta Slodowska Francisco J Hernandez Adri n Henriette Partzsch Helen Melling Conrad James and Benjamin Quarshie
