

To Kill A Mockingbird

(Adapted from the novel by Harper Lee)

'To Kill a Mockingbird' was written by Harper Lee. It is a very famous American novel. It is about a young American girl called Scout Finch.

The novel is set in the 1930s in the U.S.A. One of the most important themes in 'To Kill a Mockingbird' is racism. In the novel an Afro-American is accused of raping a white lady. It is clear that he is innocent but because he is black he is found guilty (not innocent).

The story is set in a town called Maycomb. It is in the southern states of the U.S.A, where Black people were not yet treated fairly. In 'To Kill a Mockingbird' all the black people are described as poor. They are treated badly by most white people. Scout and her family are different. They treat black people with respect. In the 1930s the law did not help Afro-Americans. Many had to go to prison for crimes they did not commit. In the story, an innocent black man is arrested and imprisoned. In the USA in the 1930s many black people were still murdered by white people.

Chapter 1

It is 1933. Scout Finch lives in a small town called Maycomb. She is six years old. Her brother is called Jem Finch. He is ten years old. Scout and Jem live with their father, Atticus Finch, a reknown¹ lawyer². When Scout was two years old her mother died. A woman lives in the house with the Finchs, Calpurnia, a cook and a black lady.

It is summertime. Scout and Jem often play with a boy called Dill. He is staying with his aunt and spending his summer holidays in Maycomb. He is seven years old. Dill always tells Scout and Jem interesting stories.

There is a house on the same street as the Finchs'. The Radleys live in that house. One member of the Radley family is called Boo. The children are fascinated by him. Yet, they have never seen him.

All the children are scared of Boo Radley. But who is Boo Radley?

His real name is Arthur Radley. When he was a teenager Boo became acquainted³ with some of the Cunningham boys who were involved in a local 'gang'. Together they did little but enough for the people of Maycomb and everyone got arrested on charges of disorderly conduct⁴, assault and using abusive language in the presence of a woman. Boo was to

¹ famous

² A person who defends people in a court of justice

³ To get to know or be familiar with a person

⁴ To be arrested for not bad behaviour in public
