From Environmental Action to Ecoterrorism? Gerry Nagtzaam, 2017-01-27 This book scrutinizes the growth of the eco terrorism movement operating on a global scale focusing on the main groups and their more radical offshoots both historically and those currently active These include Earth First the Earth Liberation Front the Animal Liberation Front and the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society It critically examines how these groups form and how they have evolved their key personnel their strategies and tactics principles motivating philosophies and attitudes to violence Specifically the book seeks to understand whether such groups inevitably evolve from activists to militants to terrorists as the literature suggests Lastly it considers the future of such groups asking whether they will become more prominent as more people become ecologically aware and as global environmental conditions deteriorate or whether such groups have peaked as a force for environmental change

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Terrorism Carola Dietze, Claudia Verhoeven, 2022 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Terrorism presents a re evaluation of the major narratives in the history of terrorism exploring the emergence and the use of terrorism in world history from antiquity up to the twenty first century The volume presents terrorism as a historically specific form of political violence that was generated by modern Western culture and then transported around the globe where it interacted with and was transformed in accordance with local conditions It offers cogent arguments and well documented case studies that support a reading of terrorism as a modern phenomenon as well as sustained analyses of the challenges involved in the application of the theories and practices of modernity and terrorism to non Western parts of the world both for historical actors and academic commentators
